Wedding Stationery Timeline

Your complete wedding invitation timeline.

There are so many pieces to planning a wedding. One part of your wedding that has many pieces is your wedding stationery. Here is a guide to what should be done and when.

One year before wedding: Begin design process for save the dates. Decide if you would like to use a picture and schedule your engagement session with your photographer. This is also a good time to start collecting addresses.

9-11 months before wedding: Save the date design and production. Allow 2-4 weeks for this step.

6-9 months before wedding: Send your save the dates. If you have a lot of guests traveling to attend your wedding you could send even sooner. Start thinking about what you would like included in your wedding invitation: design elements and accessory pieces.

4-6 months before wedding: Wedding invitation design and production. Allow 4-8 weeks for this step.

2 months before wedding: Mail your invitations!

1 month before wedding: RSVPs are due now. Take note of those that have not responded and contact them to see if they are coming. Start on your seating chart & order wedding day items.

2 weeks before wedding: Order escort cards or seating chart sign.

WEDDING DAY: Celebrate!!!! Enjoy the day. Take it all in. Make sure you eat!

1-2 months after wedding: Order your thank you notes when you get your photos back from your photographer and begin mailing.

Don't stress! I will help manage this timeline!

Let's work together on your wedding stationery and I will let you know when things are due and you don't have to worry about it.
